AFTER COALING RUSSIA WITHDRAWS SHIPS FRANCE IS FORCED TO RESPECT NEUTRALITY LAWS

(By Wireless to THE TRIBUNE.)

Tokio, Japan, April 24.—The departure of the Russians from Kamranh Bay has relieved the tension.

[Intense feeling has been aroused between Japan and France over an alleged breach of the neutrality laws in permitting Russian naval vessels to revictual and coal at Kamranh Bay, China, which is a French port. Japan called on England and the powers to assist in maintaining neutrality. French officials disclaimed any breach, declaring the recoaling and provisioning occurred outside of French waters. It was stated that the Kamranh affair was likely to weaken the Russian alliance.]

Saigon, China, April 22.—The Russian cruiser Diana, one of the fugitives from Port Arthur, has been ordered to disarm.

Paris, France, April 21.—The Russian Government has ordered Admiral Rojestvensky to rigorously respect the laws of neutrality in French waters.

A Skirmish at Sea.

Saigon, China, April 24.—Following the departure of Rojestvensky from here heavy cannonading was heard, which it is thought possible might have been firing on scout ships.

Rojestvensky to the Rescue.

St. Petersburg, Russia, April 22.—It is reported here that the second squadron is sailing for Vladivostok.

Trying to Save Vladivostok.

Tokio, Japan, April 22.—Popular belief is that the Russians are still at Kamranh. It is reported that the Russian forces are concentrating at Possiet Bay, planning to bar the way to Vladivostok.

Situation in Russia Critical.

St. Petersburg, Russia, April 20.—Many leaders of agitators have been arrested so as to prevent May day disturbances. They had been urging workmen to secure arms and resist the troops. The congress of journalists in session here are demanding the liberation of the press. Orders for 400,000,000 cartridges have been placed. Inquiries are being made abroad for warships. It is reported that South American vessels have been purchased. Advances from the front show that the Japanese armies are marching northward, preceded by cavalry.

Latest Sugar Quotations.

San Francisco, Cal., April 24.—96° Test Centrifugals, 4-95; per ton, $99.00. 88° analysis beets, 12s 10½d; per ton, $94.60.

Senator Platt Dead.

London, England, April 22.—The Earl of Chichester died last night.

Willing to Arbitrate.

Caracas, Venezuela, April 19.—President Castro is willing to arbitrate questions in dispute if proof is given that the courts are unfair.

Making a Turning Movement.

St. Petersburg, Russia, April 20.—The Russian forces in Manchuria have discovered a turning movement. Several thousand Chinese bandits with Japanese cavalry and twenty-two guns are eighty miles northeast of Chanchun.

A Bear Meets the President.

Glenwood Springs, Col. April 18.—The President has killed another bear.

Prisoners Taken at Port Arthur.

Tokio, Japan, April 13.—The total number of prisoners captured at Port Arthur amount to 41,600.

Assassin Sentenced to Death.

Moscow, Russia, April 13.—Kaleff, the assassin of Grand Duke Sergius, has been sentenced to death.

Taft to Call on Japanese Emperor.

Washington, April 19.—Secretary Taft, during his trip about the Pacific, will call at Tokio.

MADAME PELE AGAIN SEEN IN BRILLIANT FIRE DISPLAY

Volcano House, April 24.—Since last Tuesday, Kilauea has been in continuous eruption, apparently increasing in violence. A new cone has formed under a shelf at the right of the sulphur hole, from which a steady stream of smoke heretofore has been issuing. On Sunday morning a magnificent display commenced, plainly visible in the daylight, balls of flame bursting forth and large volumes of lava pouring over the crater floor. The eruptions are almost continuous, seven upheavals occurring in every five minutes. It is stated that the volcano now presents the grandest exhibition yet offered.

The May Ball.

The Grand May Ball to be given next Monday night by Company D at the National Guard Armory promises to be an elaborate and distinctive affair. One of the features of the evening is the May-pole dance and other innovations to be introduced, which will be of interest. Capt. W. A. Fetter has been selected floor manager. Music will be furnished by Carvalho's orchestra and a Hawaiian quintette club. The floor is being put into splendid shape and the decoration committee, under the supervision of chairman, J. M. Herring, has already begun an elaborate scheme of decoration, which will transform the hall into a kaleidoscope of color. The tickets are on sale at the Hilo Drug Store at $1.00, which admits a gentleman and ladies.

Spirited Playing Witnessed.

The interest in tennis has by no means abated judging by the number of spectators who have gathered every afternoon at the Hilo Tennis Club grounds to witness the tournament now in progress among its members. The courts are in fine form and the games have developed some clever playing. The games between Messrs. Grace and Mellor and Hapai and Metcalfe displayed the best tennis work during the tournament. The following were the matches played:

S. Grace defeated E. D. Baldwin, 8-6; 6-2.
Mrs. H. Vicars defeated Miss Lilinoe Hapai, 6-2; 6-1.
E. C. Mellor defeated S. Grace, 6-4 and by default.
Mrs. H. B. Elliott defeated Mrs. E. D. Baldwin, 6-0; 6-1.
H. B. Elliott defeated Adam Lindsay by default.
B. H. Elliot and H. Vicars defeated Jas. Sisson and F. W. Thrum.
E. D. Baldwin and C. E. Mellor defeated S. Grace and J. E. Metcalfe, 7-5; 6-3.
J. E. Metcalfe defeated C. Castendyke, 6-1; 6-1.
Mrs. Elliot and Miss Hapai defeated Mrs. Castendyke and Mrs. Metcalfe, 6-1; 5-7 and 6-2.
Geo. Hapai defeated J. E. Metcalfe, 4-6; 6-3 and 6-3.

Orphan Children Given an Outing.

Miss Clara Gillaspie, with a party of five children from the Kona Orphanage, arrived in Hilo on Saturday on a tour of the island. The party were taken in charge by E. E. Richards, who on Sunday and Monday showed them the sights in and about Hilo. The children had never ridden before on a railroad until the ride from Glenwood as the guests of the Hilo railroad, and Mr. W. S. Terry gave them a ride on an automobile, an experience which they thoroughly enjoyed. The Orphanage is largely indebted to L. S. Augst of Honolulu for the trip. Mr. Augst provided surrey and team for the party and under Miss Gillaspie's supervision they left Kailua on last Tuesday. They were the guests of the Volcano House and no where has the trip cost the five little boys and girls or their conductress a penny. They leave this morning for Honokaa, thence to Waimea, returning to their Home on Saturday, after a two weeks' outing.

In conversation with a TRIBUNE representative, Miss Gillaspie said: "Yes, the children are having a glorious trip, without expense to themselves or Miss Alice F. Beard, whose project the Kona orphanage is. In our party we have three girls—one Chinese, one Japanese and one Portuguese, and two boys, one Porto Rican and a Japanese youngster. These are the 'merit class,' who through excellence in their work at the Home are entitled to this trip."

"We have sixty-five inmates in the Orphanage, which is situated near Kailua. We have children ranging in ages from two and a half years to seventeen, at which time it is believed they have formed characters and are able to go out into the world. The Kona Orphanage has been in operation six years. It is a private institution supported mainly through Miss Beard's personal funds and efforts. She has an income of $2,000 a year which she devotes to this work of reclaiming the homeless boys and girls thrown upon the streets of Honolulu and other parts of the islands. While we have a farm in connection with the Orphanage, the institution is by no means self-supporting, although we are sending vegetables and fruits to market every week. Industrial work and manual training are the principal lines of education, although a course of study similar to the grades in the public schools is carried out under Miss Beard's supervision and a corps of six teachers. The annual cost of running the Orphanage is approximately $2,000 and only recently has it been necessary to appeal to the public for assistance. Miss Beard expects an appropriation this year of $2,400 by the legislature. I am much gratified with the splendid treatment received at the hands of Mr. Richards and others, which I am sure would likewise be appreciated by Miss Beard upon my return with my five charges."

A Magnificent Production Tonight.

The tableaux vivants to be given tonight at Spreckels' Hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Social Circle, will be one of the most finished productions ever witnessed by a Hilo audience. The advance sale of seats has largely exceeded the expectations of the management and the house will be taxed to its utmost. Several additional numbers have been added to the program, which will add to the variety and beauty of the affair. Three musical productions by local composers will be heard for the first time in Hilo. "Pauahi, Kealii," by Mrs. Cordelia Clymer Yarnley, is an Hawaiian anthem, and two selections, "Sing Ye to the Lord," and "Throw Open Your Gates, O Valhalla," are composed by Mrs. J. T. Lewis. Mrs. Lewis has been untiring in her efforts to bring the choruses up to a high grade of perfection, and Mrs. Henry Hayes has rendered valuable assistance in her suggestions as to detail and in writing lines for new and additional characters. The whole affair has been under the management of Mrs. Levi Lyman and Mrs. L. Turner, who have given special study to pose and effect of the entire performance and made it what it will be, an artistic success.
